Kappa Sigma No Longer has a Chapter at Ohio State University

(Charlottesville, Virginia)- The Kappa Sigma Fraternity has recently been made aware of a group of students at Ohio State University who are representing themselves as members of an undergraduate Chapter of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Kappa Sigma closed its Alpha-Sigma Chapter on July 8, 2020 when the Fraternity's Supreme Executive Committee withdrew the Charter for violations of the Fraternity's Code of Conduct. No group of students operating on campus in the name of Kappa Sigma Fraternity has the right or authority to do so.

Any underground or sub rosa group is not authorized to use the name of Kappa Sigma Fraternity or its service marks on the Ohio State University campus in any form or fashion. Only Chartered Chapters of Kappa Sigma Fraternity are authorized to operate a chapter and use the distinctive marks of the Fraternity. "Any student at Ohio State University who states that they are a member of a Kappa Sigma Chapter operating on the Ohio State University campus is doing so under false pretenses. This will not be tolerated by the Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Kappa Sigma will take legal action to stop such activity if necessary", said Kappa Sigma Fraternity Executive Director Mitchell B. Wilson. "The next time that Kappa Sigma will be represented at Ohio State University will be in 2024," Wilson said.

Kappa Sigma welcomes any information from any and all sources regarding any group of students on the campus who makes claims to be associated with a Chapter of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Please contact Kappa Sigma International Headquarters at 434-295-3193.

Kappa Sigma is the largest college social fraternity in the world with more than 200,000 living members, including over 17,000 undergraduates and 300 chapters and colonies located throughout the United States and Canada. Founded in 1869 at the University of Virginia, Kappa Sigma International Headquarters is based in Charlottesville, Virginia.
